

The
Greater Cleveland Christian
Administrators' Association
February 10, 2022 Meeting

LEADING FROM A NEW PERSPECTIVE:
HOW TO MAKE STRATEGIC DECISIONS
IN A TIME OF ABUNDANCE

Dr. Alan Pue will be giving us a template for a five-year strategic financial plan and the priorities that should be included...such as human resources issues. We'll also enjoy a time for questions and answers.

Please join us and bring a friend, Business Manager, or Board member! We'll meet together from: 9:30am - 11:30am at the Chapel in Akron, then enjoy lunch and discussion from 11:30am - 12:15pm. Please arrive a little early! For more information, visit www.GCCAA.com .

Alan Pue, EdD, has spent a lifetime in Christian schooling as a student, teacher, coach, head of school, pastor, and for five years as Provost of The Master's College (now University) in Santa Clarita, California. He currently serves as President of The Barnabas Group, Inc., providing strategic/scenario planning, leadership development, and governance training assistance to Christian schools and other faith-based organizations. He is also the author of Rethinking Sustainability and Rethinking Strategic Planning and Rethinking Discipleship.

